

Deborah Ann (Lawler) Colston

Deborah “Deb” was born in Bowling Green, Kentucky to the proud parents of David and Jane Lawler. She has one sister, Martha Lawler, whom most of you may know as Coach Lawler! Needless to say, Deb is very proud of her heritage and lineage of faithful ministers of the gospel and pioneers on her Dad’s side and those faithful family “characters” on her Mom’s side! She has been gifted with the best from both sides!

Deb is a 1977 graduate of Covington High School, attended Union University in Jackson, TN, and transferred to the University of North Alabama where she received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics and Chemistry in 1980.

She is married to Dr. Mike Colston and has been for 37 years. They serve together at Memorial Baptist Church in Frankfort, KY where Mike is the Senior Pastor and Deb serves as the Women’s Ministry Leader, and Co-director of the Children’s AWANA Program. They have 4 children: Megan, Drew, and Kathryn, and Rachel, who is already walking with Jesus. Deb and Mike also have 4 grandchildren: Autumn, Cade, Finn, and Gavin, all ranging in ages from 4 years to 8 months.

Deb has been in a relationship with Jesus Christ since December 22, 1994 and has never been the same. There is a big difference in knowing who He is (head knowledge) and in having a relationship by receiving Jesus Christ, God’s Son as Savior and Lord (heart and head). She has a passion for women of all ages from birth to over 100 years of age and wants all of us to realize just how much God loves us and who we are based on His truth. She believes that faith and prayer are two major keys to bringing God’s Kingdom to earth as it is in Heaven. Jesus taught us to pray, so our desire should be to pray and to pray without ceasing bringing Him glory!
